

Sunday 14th September – Out Of The Ordinary – Week 2 – Lifegroup Notes

Welcome

Who is the most ‘out of the ordinary’ person you have ever met? What makes them like that?

Word

On Sunday, Andy & Tom explored the story of Esther and focussed in on three of the main characters. It might be a good idea to recap the story of Esther together (Esther 2 to 8). Then discuss the following ...

- Esther is called out of the ordinary to go before the King in an attempt to save the Jewish people. If you were Esther, what excuses would you have made to not do it?
- Why do you think it is easier to stay in the ordinary rather than step ‘out of the ordinary?’
- When was the last time you stepped out of the ordinary? How did it go? What did you learn?

Andy talked about Mordecai’s role being to call others out of the ordinary ...

- Who in your life, so far, has been a Mordecai to you?
- How can we call each other out of the ordinary?

Out Of The Ordinary

Discuss some real life situations where you may be called to act ‘out of the ordinary’. In pairs try doing some role play in order to practice stepping out of the ordinary and into the extraordinary. This is a great opportunity for the group to provide some really practical tips and advice for each other.
