

Ask it - Week 2 - " The question everybody's asking deep down?"

Welcome - How has your week been?

Trying explaining it as a weather forecast!

Works - spend some time praying for situations around the world such as Paris, Nigeria, Syria.....so much darkness.....'Lord, let there be light'

Word - Tonight's question is 'Does God really know me?'

Many people reject the notion of a God who knows us personally and intimately.

- What are some of the reasons why people find this hard to accept?
- What have been some of your experiences where you've realised God really does know you?
- Look at the 4 points made Sunday and after discussion on each ask the question, 'so what?' What are the implications for us if each point is true?

He knows our secrets - Ps. 139 v.1-16

He knows our struggles - Matt. 6 v. 25-27

He knows our scars - Ps. 56 v.8

He knows our service - Matt. 6 v.4

Worship - finish by worshipping and thanking God for His grace, mercy and love.

Share communion with each other, pray for one another, is anyone feeling under pressure right now? Feeling Isolated or alone? God knows them!
