

Welcome

What's the most disgusting food you've ever tasted?

Word

This weeks emotion is disgust. There's a fine line between not liking something and being disgusted by it. Discuss in the group what you think the difference could be?

Disgust is both a physical and an emotional response. When is it right to have a disgusted response to something? When is it wrong?

Think of times when Jesus was disgusted in the bible - who was this with and why? What can we learn from this?

"God gives us emotions so we can experience life, not destroy it?"

Our emotions are a gift from God. If disgust is a gift from God what is our correct response to it?

Read Luke 7 v 36-50

Discuss these following questions after reading the text

- What is the woman's reaction to her own disgust?
- What is Simon's reaction to the woman?
- What is Jesus' reaction to Simon?
- What is the woman's reaction to Jesus?
- What is Jesus' reaction to the woman?
- What is the Pharisees reaction to Jesus?

If we've been given a ministry of reconciliation what does this actually mean? How do we do it? (2 Corinthians 5:18-21)

Grace has two sides:

It is something to be received.

It is something to be extended.

Pray for people in your group to both receive and extend grace this week. Thank Jesus for His grace.
