

The Lost arts - Connect group notes

Week 3 - Conversation - the one habit that builds healthy relationships

Start talking

This week our lost art is the art of conversation!

Think of an engaging way to encourage the group to start having.....conversation!!!

Start digging deeper

- What are some of the things that impacted you or made you think from Sunday's talk?
- In what ways do you think we may have lost some of the art of conversation?
- Where do we see this loss playing out in our society?
- “A real conversation always contains an invitation” - what do you think this means?

Look at the story of Adam and Eve through the lens of conversation...

Read Genesis 3 v. 1-12.

- What does it say?
- What speaks to you from this story?
- What is the significance of the first question ever asked in the Bible, “where are you?”
- What behaviours do you see in Adam and Eve that we also see in ourselves?

God asks us this question every single day, “where are you?”

In other words, how are you....really? Where are you at?

- Why is this so powerful?

Think about your relationships with people....

What could it mean to take your time, take your turn and take a risk?

Think about your relationship with God...

What could it mean to take your time, take your turn and take a risk?

Start praying with and for each other

‘Where are you?’ ‘How are you....really?’

Listen to God and speak into each other's lives....

Remind everyone of the Christmas programme available now on the web site and how you as a connect group could be involved bringing HOPE this Christmas!
